

HANDBALL: Super Sunday of Success for Cullohill Handball - Cullohill Handball Club enjoyed a day to remember on Sunday last with success on both sides of the Atlantic. The day started with a full house of victories in the GAA Leinster Juvenile Handball Championships Girls. The U12 Doubles winners were Emma Delaney and Lucy O'Connor; U13 Doubles winners were Ruby McEvoy and Aoife Dunne; U14 Doubles winners were Lauren McGuigan and Aoife Dunne; Boys U17 Singles winner was Podge Delaney; Winners from U14 up progress to represent Leinster in the All Irelands. Good luck in the All Ireland Semi Finals this weekend to Podge Delaney in the U17 Singles and Lauren McGuigan and Aoife Brophy in the U14 Doubles. As play ended in the Leinster Championships on Sunday news filtered through that our star player Niamh Dunne and her Doubles Partner had won the USA Collegiate Open Doubles Championships in Minnesota. This is another big milestone in the glittering career of Niamh who continues to do Cullohill and Laois proud on the national and now international stage! Don't forget you can follow all the club results and news us on our Facebook page.

THE HARPS GAA: Harps Players set foundation for Colaiste Mhuire Johnstown Senior Colleges victory - This was the first senior colleges title ever for the school and no fewer than four players came from the Harps club. Captain and centre back David Doheny, goalkeeper Liam Dunphy left half back Johnny Doyle and full forward Padraig Delaney all played well. It has been a super campaign for the Johnstown side with hard fought battles with Gorey and Enniscorthy of Wexford to reach final against Ard Scoil Ris of Dublin in the final last Tuesday at Dr. Cullen Park. It was a fantastic match and the sides were only separated after extra time. But in the end the Johnstown lads skill, steel and determination secured a victory by 5 points. Well done to all the Harps lads who incidentally had more club men on the first 15 than any other of the Kilkenny or Tipperary clubs!

BARNEY'S BONUS BONANZA: Barney's Bonus Bonanza is the Harps Camogie Clubs new lotto! This lotto draw is limited to 47 people. The cost is €20 per month and you sign up for a year.
