SPECIAL OLYMPICS IRELAND: Special Olympics Ireland urgently requires volunteers in the Durrow area to help with its charity collection day which takes place on Friday 22nd April. Collection Day is the biggest annual fund raising event in aid of Special Olympics with the funds supporting more than 9,000 athletes in 360 clubs around Ireland. Special Olympics Ireland requires volunteers across the day. If you can commit to the full day or even just an hour, please contact Louise Duffy on (01) 8691626, email: duffy.louise@specialolympics.ie or check out the website www.specialolympics.ie online.

LAWLORS GALA: Congratulations to Lawlor's Gala, The Square, Durrow on celebrating forty years in business. The Business was started on April 1st 1976 by Billy and Susan Lawlor and family. Down through the years they have provided great service to the people of Durrow and surrounding areas. The business was formerly owned by Brendan Sheeran. Despite the tragic death of Billy in 1994, Susan and her young family put everything into the business and have played a big part in serving the area for all their needs. Great credit is also given to the very friendly and helpful staff. To mark the occasion Susan, Family and staff will celebrate on Friday with their customers by selling chosen items at 1976 prices, a nice cuppa and a free draw. Everyone wishes Lawlor's Gala every success in the years ahead.

DURROW ONLINE: View your local community's latest news, sport, notices and much more by logging on and visiting www.durrow.ie online.

TOP CHEF: Well done to Shane Lawlor, Fermoy on getting into the final five of the Board Bia's Ham and Bacon grand final cook off live on the Anton Savage Radio Show recently. Shane cooked a Spicy Roast Bacon and Cabbage and his dish got great praise from all the judges. Shane won an Apple iPad for his efforts.

FISHING: The first trout fishing competition of the year was held on St. Patrick's Day for the Michael Walsh Cup. There were some beautiful fish landed and the competition was very close. The winner was Sean Geoghegan; Second - Pat Dunphy; Third - Philip Kearney and the Juvenile winner was Daniel Brophy. Then on Sunday 20th of March the club held another trout fishing competition for the Billy Lawlor Memorial Cup. The winner was Pat Dunphy; Second - Seanie Delehunty and Third - Declan McDonald. The next competition will be held on April 3rd for the Mick O'Rourke Memorial Trophy and it will again be trout fishing. Membership is available at Lawlor's Gala, Daybreak, Lawlor's Florists and from Mick Walsh, 18 Erkindale Drive.
