LAOIS COMHALTAS: We will be having our Registration Night for the new season on Friday 16th September, between 7.30pm and 9.30pm in Knock Hall, Spink. This night coincides with Culture Night, so there will be a free concert by members of Spink Comhaltas. We will also have the opportunity for anyone interested in the instrument bank to take a look at the instruments available, and to try them out. We have exciting plans for this year, and as part of these plans, Spink will have a second teacher to support the musical development of our members. More information will follow on this shortly.

Please encourage your family and friends/neighbours to come along to the concert. Can you also encourage anyone who is thinking about learning traditional Irish music (adults as well as children) to come along so they can talk to us on the evening. Finally, if you are an existing member and are planning to renew your membership this year but cannot attend registration, please confirm by email to ccespink@gmail.com and let us know that you are renewing. Classes re-commence on Friday 23rd September, and we need to know our expected numbers for final preparation for this date. Look forward to seeing you on the 16th September!

CONGRATULATIONS to Aaron and Lorraine Delaney, Ballynevin, Cullohill on the birth of a son, Liam on the 26th August last.

FRIENDS OF CUAN MUIRE: The weekly meetings of Friends of Cuan Mhuire will take place at 7.30pm on Friday nights at the Sue Ryder Centre, Kilminchy village in Portlaoise. If you or someone you know is suffering with alcohol, narcotics or gambling addictions we are here to support you and to listen to you with compassion. This is an opportunity to meet and talk with people who understand your issues.

If you are in recovery from addiction, struggling with addiction or need support due to someone else's addiction we can offer a wide variety of help and support systems. Sister Consilio will give a talk at the first meeting along with her team of highly trained staff members. Everyone is welcome to come along. Light refreshments will be available on the night.
